The term "Jihadism" (also "jihadist movement", "jihadi movement" and variants) is a 21st-century neologism found in Western languages to describe Islamist militant movements perceived as military movements "rooted in Islam" and "existentially threatening" to the West. It has been described as a "difficult term to define precisely", because it remains a recent neologism with no single, generally ...

Events. A delegation of Yemeni officials visited Guantanamo shortly after it opened in January 2002. On March 12, 2008, Mark Falkoff of the Center for Constitutional Rights issued a call for the repatriation of the Yemeni detainees, reporting that 95 Yemenis remained in detention, and they now constituted more than a third of the total detainee population.

The third trend is the erosion of multilateralism. Whereas former President Obama sought (with mixed success) to manage and cushion America's relative decline by bolstering international agreements – such as trade deals, the Paris climate accord, and the Iran nuclear negotiations – President Trump recoils from all that.
